

International Air Cadet Exchange*

2003

Project Host: Maryland Wing

Ever wanted to share the CAP story with foreign air cadet programs?

So, what does it take? Volunteer for the IACE 2003 Maryland Host Team!

We can get you started! Planning for the International Air Cadet Exchange 2003 has begun. We need you to make it a success.

By helping out the IACE 2003 Maryland Host Team you make IACE a phenomenal success.

“What kind of volunteering?” you ask. We need members who can:

- 🌐 help in any way you can share your talents
- 🌐 manage trip planning
- 🌐 set up lodging and meals
- 🌐 develop an activities plan
- 🌐 develop a program web site

To volunteer, contact Maj. Alexandra Calloway at calloway.alexandra@orbital.com or call 301-809-2938. A kick-off meeting is being planned for late August. Details about meeting to follow.

* The aim of IACE is to foster international understanding, goodwill and friendship among young people who have an interest in aviation. It endeavours to realize this aim by organizing an annual exchange of Air Cadets between organizations of the participating countries.

Approximately 70 cadets from abroad travel to the US. The foreign cadets begin their US trip by spending 3 days touring Washington, D.C. Then the cadets form small groups. Host wings sponsor one of these groups of exchange cadets (6-10 cadets per group) for 10 days.
